GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS SUTTON TO THE N.C. BOARD OF DIETETICS/NUTRITION

Raleigh - Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Mary B. Sutton of Rocky Mount to the North Carolina Board of Dietetics/Nutrition.

Sutton works as a program developer with Edgecombe Middle College High School. Prior to her current position, Sutton was a French and English teacher at Tarboro High School for more than 20 years. Sutton received her bachelor's degree in French and English from N.C. Central University.

The board establishes education, licensing and regulation standards for people practicing dietetics and nutrition. There are seven members on the board, each serving a three-year term. The governor appoints three members.
